Linda is a singer/pianist/guitarist/drummer and a credentialed K-12 music teacher with nearly 20 years' experience and degrees from top Nashville, Tennessee schools. She provides professional vocal and keyboard performance, piano and voice lessons, composition/arranging, music theory, and does vocal production on demo albums for students. She also performs locally with the band for hire, Royal Heat. She is passionate about making high quality, fun, personalized music instruction available to local children and adults. She is an Artist in Residence with Poway Unified School District.

School Teaching Experience

As a credentialed music teacher, Linda has taught an estimated 1,600 students from pre-school to grade 12 in San Diego and Nashville-area schools. She has been honored to host many recitals, musicals, choral performances, recorder, guitar, xylophone, and drum ensembles of over 100 children at a time in her employment with school districts. She has developed the following curricula for the following K-12 courses to date: Children's Choir, Class Drumming, Musical Theater Crash Course Performance, High School Musical Theater, Class Piano Lab, Class Guitar, Children's Choir, High School SSAA, SATB, and Show Choir, High School Barbershop Quartet, Recorder Karate, Music Street Solfegge Instruction Grades K-3, Music Composition, Music Appreciation, Music Theory, and Build Your Own Instrument.

Student Accolades

Several of her current and former students gig professionally, accompanying themselves on piano or guitar while they sing. Numerous stages have hosted students including: America's Got Talent (semi-finalist), Rancho Bernardo Idol (1st place and 2nd place), the San Diego State University opera program, North County Idol (1st and 2nd place winners), Del Mar Fairgrounds stages, The Poway Rodeo (2nd place), the Ramona Fair (1st place), and All-State Chorus. Berklee College of Music, San Diego State University, and the University of Southern California's Thorton School of Music are destinations of former students who went on to become music majors.

Training

She holds a Bachelor's degree in Music Education from Belmont University in Nashville, where she was chosen as Most Outstanding Senior Music Major and Most Outstanding University Junior, on a Voice Scholarship. She holds a Masters in Curriculum and Instructional Leadership (M.Ed.) from Vanderbilt University. Her professional memberships include the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS), and the Music Teachers Association of California (MTAC).
